

AP Review

part 1

ACROSS

- 2 An image in one's mind about an area, location, or environment
- 4 Pattern or path of movement from one location to another specific location initiated by (an) individual(s) and followed by family
- 6 The position of a place in relation to the position of another place
- 8 Processing activities – manufacturing
- 10 A graph that represents a population by age and sex.
- 13 A central place is a market center used for an exchange of goods and services
- 14 An area that can be identified by its homogeneous cultural or physical characteristics
- 22 Weighs three basic expenses against each other to try to determine the best location: relative transport costs, agglomeration costs, and labor costs
- 23 Population grows exponentially while its food supply grows linearly.
- 24 Service activities.
- 25 The time it would take for the country's population to double at its current RNI

DOWN

- 1 Belief that the physical environment is solely responsible for shaping human actions and behaviors.
- 3 The exact position of a place
- 5 Migrants return to their point of origin
- 7 Theoretical number of people a given area is able to support
- 9 Describes the relationship between distance from market and land use.
- 10 Belief that people, and not the environment, are the forces responsible for shaping culture.
- 11 Long distance relocation completed in stages
- 12 Average number of children a woman will have during her reproductive years
- 15 Describes the decline of attractive pull something has with increasing distance from the point of origin.
- 16 Believed that the best base for world domination would be the Eurasian Heartland
- 17 Number of dependents (under 15 and over 65) to number of productive people (ages 15-65)
- 18 Agricultural and extractive activities.
- 19 Reasoned that the best base for global conquest would be the Eurasian Rimland.
- 20 An area not defined by any set of physical data, but by human conception of the area
- 21 An area in which there is a center from which social or economic activities spread

Note: For a fee, you can use Crossword Weaver to print a nice copy of this puzzle (one that doesn't look like a web page). You can check it out for free by downloading the demo from www.CrosswordWeaver.com .

AP Review

Part 2

ACROSS

- 2 A simple mixture of basic elements of two (or more) languages
- 6 Businesses or industries leave an area where they had been concentrated due to technology, increased costs, or competition
- 8 (New York, London, and Tokyo) international urban centers that are the core of global trade and finance
- 9 Established language used for communication between people with incomprehensible native languages

DOWN

- 1 A pidgin that has evolved to take on more complex grammar and syntax; it has also become the first language of a group
- 3 Oral traditions, songs, beliefs that are representative of a culture
- 4 Country with a centralized government and cultural homogeneity
- 5 A foreign territory that perforates a larger state
- 7 May be recognized as both a religion and as an ethnic

- 11 One city is much larger than the size of the next largest and clearly dominates a country's urban hierarchy
- 16 Heritage of static, traditional customs of culture, usually specific to a certain group; tends to divide people from one another
- 20 The element spreads uniformly outward from its source region
- 22 Objects shaped or created and used that represent a culture
- 23 Country made up of several equal provinces with strong regional governments
- 25 A pattern observed in some countries where the nth largest city is 1/n the size of the largest city
- 27 Promote division within a state
- 28 A group of associated states whose jurisdiction supersedes that of each individual state
- 30 An outlying portion of one state, usually inside another country
- 31 A capital deliberately sited away from a state's core to encourage uniform development
- 32 Process of spreading the element through tiers
- 33 System that makes use of natural features to set boundaries, causing very few regular boundaries to be formed
- group
- 10 Process of revitalizing an area of a city to make it more attractive to the middle and upper classes
- 12 Dynamic culture of a mass of people; tends to unify people
- 13 Concentration of production or businesses in one area for mutual benefit
- 14 Farms as part of corporate units; farms produce for a specific market and are often part of a vertically integrated business
- 15 A state that spatially coincides with a nation
- 17 Unify the people of a state
- 18 Growth of crops in order to sustain oneself
- 19 The element spreads to other areas but remains strong in its hearth region
- 21 A sovereign political unit with government and boundaries recognized by outsiders
- 24 A people's way of life; developed by a people to meet its fundamental needs
- 26 Recognizable speech variant from the standard version of a language
- 29 A group of people with unifying cultural characteristics and a perceived homeland

Note: For a fee, you can use Crossword Weaver to print a nice copy of this puzzle (one that doesn't look like a web page). You can check it out for free by downloading the demo from www.CrosswordWeaver.com.